THE CITY OF PARIS

Breaks the Record—Her Time Five Days.

Twenty-Three Hours and Seven Minutes.

New York, May 2.—The human line steamer City of Paris, has broken the record.

Her time from Queenstown to New York is computed to be 5 days, 23 hours, 7 minutes.

Her fastest daily record was on May 7, when her log showed 511 miles. The Canarder Etruria's best time is 6 days, 1 hour, 55 minutes.

DESTRUCTIVE STORM.

Portions of Pennsylvania Swept by a Very Severe Hurricane—A Number of People

Killed and Many Houses Wrecked.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., May 11.—A sudden storm yesterday caused a panic in the large audience in Barnum's circus. None of the performers were seriously hurt, though some were more or less injured. Some of the performers were injured, as portions of the tent were blown down.

The performers injured were: Ichacto, a Japanese, head and body injured; Miss Mollie Thompson, hit in the face by a stake;

Miss Nellie Flynn, nose broken; Master E.

French, rib broken; Miss Lillie Deacon, knocked senseless by a pole; George Marks, scalp wound. Loss, estimated, $10,000. A number of buildings in the city were damaged.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 11.—A heavy storm late yesterday afternoon did considerable damage in the city and vicinity. The day had been so hot that many glass and iron workers were compelled to stop work.

A Newcastle special says the storm did considerable damage there. Ex-County Treasurer Reinold's house was struck by lightning and his wife and daughter stunned.

READING, Pa., May 11.—A terrific wind and rain storm passed over the city about 4:30 p. m., unroofing a number of houses and prostrating trees and fences. The storm is reported to have done much damage in the Lebanon valley, particularly Palmyra, where many houses were blown down.

Wires are down and details lacking.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., May 11.—A terrific wind and rain storm damaged many buildings in this city about 4 p. m. A panic occurred among the girls in the silk mill, and Salie Rechart was thrown down a flight of stairs and seriously injured. Work had to be suspended for the day.

EASTON, Pa., May 11.—A cyclone yesterday afternoon uprooted trees and unroofed building in this city and vicinity. Mrs.

David E. Warding and her son were badly injured by a bill board, which was blown down upon them.

SUNBURY, Pa., May 11.—The storm was very severe in this city, many buildings being damaged. One end of the Clement house fell into the street, and several persons escaped injury.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., May 11.—During the storm at Mahanoy City yesterday a Polish miner named Beta was killed by lightning, and two others struck, but not fatally injured.

NEWPORT, Pa., May 11.—The county fair exhibition building was demolished and other buildings damaged by a tornado at 4 p. m. Charles Meyers, aged 8, was killed.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., May 11.—During a severe storm yesterday afternoon William Clapper, of Gulf Summit, N. Y., was killed by lightning.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., May 11.—A tornado at 3:35 p. m. wrecked many buildings, including eight new unoccupied tenement houses.

A Destructive Hall Storm in Illinois.

BELEVILLE, Ill., May 11.—A most terrific hall, wind and rain storm visited this city and vicinity yesterday afternoon. Old residents say that it was one of the hardest ever seen here. Half stones as large as walnuts fell for thirty minutes. The fruit trees are all in full bloom, and much damage will be done. Corn planting was about completed, but much will probably have to be replanted, the seed being literally washed out of the ground. Stock which was out in the open fields and unable to get under shelter suffered badly.

A Storm in New York City.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The day was intensely hot, but about 3 o'clock a sudden wind storm came up and cooled the air, but did considerable damage to skylight, signs, etc. Several small crafts were overturned in the bay, but no loss of life was reported.

A heavy rain followed the wind.

Bridge Blown Away.

POINT OF ROCKS, Md., May 11.—The new iron bridge in process of construction across the Potomac to the Virginia side was swept away by the storm yesterday evening.

Charles Beamer and Augustus Carter, two workmen, were badly hurt.

A Elmhurst, New York.

ELMHURST, N. Y., May 11.—A heavy storm passed over this section yesterday afternoon, damaging many buildings. Several persons were hurt by flying debris, and Jacob Met-zer, a merchant, was severely injured by his carriage being blown over.

Narrow Escape of Miss Emma Juch.

RUTLAND, Vt., May 11.—A sudden storm came up yesterday and lightning shattered a building at the marble quarries, where Miss Emma Juch, the vocalist, and some friends had taken refuge. They were stunned but not injured.

Workmen Blown Off a Church.

ROCHESTER, May 11.—At Genesee yesterday a wind storm blew three workmen from a church building. They fell forty feet, and one named Reed was killed and the others injured.

Eleven Cows Burned to Death.

LOMINSTER, Mass., May 11.—A terrific storm at 7 p. m. damaged many buildings, and Wheeler's large barn was set on fire by lightning and burned, with eleven cows and other stock.

Sixteen Workmen Injured.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 11.—During a severe storm yesterday afternoon an unfinished building was wrecked and sixteen workmen injured, Frederick Sherman fatally.

Geberie Still Holds the Majority of Population and is not yet symmetrically formed.

Oklahoma City is the most promising town site. Capt. Crook, the old successor to Boomer Payne, was Saturday elected mayor, defeating a preacher whose platform was against gambling and whisky. As long as the latter is excluded, as it is now, serious trouble cannot occur in Oklahoma.

Likely to be Lynched.

JACKSON, O., May 13.—Lynching is threatened William Althouse, accused of an outrageous assault upon the two little Mc-Claind girls. The jail is strongly guarded.
